Welcome Screen

Hey, Boomers!

Hap-py New Year! I've already cracked open a new can of oil to celebrate the start of another mega-tastic year for STC. The humes-who-think-they're-in-charge have stumbled back into the office bedecked in their new string vests and hand-knitted balaclavas, but apart from that STC's back to 'normal' after the Festive Bumper issues with a return to the usual format and the old price of £1.15. Less pages, but you can't win 'em all.

Hands up those humes who have made New Year resolutions. Mine was to ensure that STC launched into 1995 with an explosive start. Sonic 'first foots' in a brand new two parter, Badnik's Bridge. Sonic and Knuckles get double exposure in the Review Zone, and Q Zone (mamadroid used to say never do things in half measures!). Plus there's continuing action in Streets of Rage, Marko's Magic Football and the Knuckles series, Carnival Night Conspiracy.

There's plenty more surprises up my mighty metal sleeve for '95, but for now, tell me what you'd like to see more of in STC. Hold off on the begging letters though, as I'm too modest to pose for a centre-spread!

Following on from the huge success of Sonic 3, the next episode in the life of Sega's blue superstar is Sonic & Knuckles. This is the first game of its type to have a top-slot, allowing previous titles in the series to be backwardly compatible. For example, placing Sonic 3 into Sonic & Knuckles allows you to be Knuckles in the game; thus adding a new dimension to gameplay and giving value for money with Sonic 1, 2 and 3.

Played over a total of six levels with two new bonus rounds, harder to beat bosses, plus plenty more objects to interact with and avoid, this game is an improvement on its predecessor. The 3D inyer-face Special Stage is still present, but unfortunately, the basic gameplay of running at speed, collecting rings and finding emeralds remains unchanged.

The much criticised F-Ram save facility introduced in Sonic 3 is not included in Sonic & Knuckles, making it much harder to complete. Those who like a challenge will be satisfied.

Although this is the best Sonic game released so far, it would be wise for Sega to come up with a much needed change of gameplay for the future. Sonic & Knuckles is excellent value for money. For those who missed out at Christmas, be sure to put it on your birthday list!

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG: TRIPLE TROUBLE

Game Gear

game type: PLATFORM
1 PLAYER

The starter menu allows you to play as either Sonic and Tails, and you also get the chance to play in a Time Attack where you race against the clock in order to gain a faster time. This takes place over a challenging special course and helps to improve your performance for the actual game.

Triple Trouble is played over six new zones, each containing three acts. You still have to travel through platform levels collecting rings and destroying badniks, and the aim is still to rescue the six Chaos Emeralds whilst defeating the evil Doctor Robotnik (humph!). However, you do get six very challenging zones with plenty of varied baddies to defeat, collectable items, bosses to destroy and two spanking new special stages!

It has to be said that a change in game type by Sega wouldn't go amiss the next time around. Triple Trouble certainly qualifies as a top Sonic game.

Who could blame Game Gear owners for thinking that Sega had forgotten them with the release of Sonic & Knuckles on the Mega Drive. Well, don't despair as the latest handheld system only release is Triple Trouble.

Starring Knuckles, Tails, and of course, Sonic, there's also a brand new character making his debut: Nack the Weasel! Nack is a treasure hunter in pursuit of the Chaos Emeralds and he's not fussy who he steals them from!

He's under the illusion that the Emeralds are merely large jewels capable of fetching a handsome price at market. Yes, poor old Nack is oblivious to the true power of the Emeralds. This Weasel may not be as fast as the others, but he is tricky, and uses a speedy air-bike for transport.

THE NEXT LEVEL

32X TITLES LIFT US HIGHER!

Whoa super alien action.

Stand by for multi polygon 3-D, get ready for ace light-sourcing and prepare yourself for superb sprite-scaling ability. If this all sounds too technical, all will be revealed this January and February. Software designed especially for Sega's new £170 upgrade - the 32X, is about to hit town. Cosmic Carnage is one of the first games out in the new year and is already being billed as the ultimate fighting game. From exclusive screen shots it certainly looks as if it will beat up other beat 'em-ups. It has a one-to-one fighting scenario featuring bizarre alien characters from across the galaxy. These aliens have different combat techniques, special moves and a special feature that allows some fighters to bolt on extra weapons to their body armour. This game guarantees fast and smooth fighting action and when a fighter pulls off a wicked move, camera-like scrolling zooms in on the action until it fills the screen. Price to be announced.

Two games based around sporting action also usher in the new year as hot releases for the 32X ... Golf Magazine Presents Greatest 36 Holes offers you stunning graphics as well as advice from top golfer Fred

Couples on how to get around the holes. Matchplay or tournament play are options, but best of all you get to decide what your golfer wears. Should you go for trousers, shorts or mixed checks with the lurid golfing tops? You can even save your fashion disaster onto the carts memory so that he can come-back time and time again and turn heads and stomachs with both his golf and his appearance. Super Moto-Cross is the other sports game out and this is a fast action, dirt-in-your-face competitive moto-cross game. Sneak previews show awesome graphics and plenty of mud and dirt to churn up with your bike.

Prices and specific release dates to be announced

It's muddy, it's mad, it's Moto-Cross.

SKELETON KREW

DEM SCARY BONES!

Core Design are the company that brought us the recent prehistoric hit BC Racers on the Mega CD, which was a Fred Flintstone meets the superbikes type game. Skeleton Krew is their new game now making an appearance on the Mega Drive. Due for release at the beginning of February at a price to be announced, Skeleton Krew is a shoot 'em-up based around bony

Bony bodies shake, rattle and roll.

Moribund Kadaver has created mutations (Psykenix), responsible for wiping out cities. This guy's worse than a James Bond baddy because he wants to rule the universe with his company DEAD Inc. Thus the call goes up for morbid mercenaries to sort him out, make way for the Skeleton Krew.

You can choose to be one of three bags of bones: Joint, Rib or Spine, or as you set out on 8-way scrolling worlds conquering each level before facing up to its Boss. The non-chunky characters each come with a different weapon: a power beam for Spine, missile launcher for Rib and a bazooka for Joint. These weapons,

SHORT BURSTS

T Rex is mad.

Is it a tree? Is it a dinosaur?

Bronte-saw-ee.

CADILLACS AND DINOSAURS

More news and first pictures here of a new game by the highly talented programmers at Rocket Science (first featured in STC 40). Out about now, priced £44.95 comes the quirky Cadillacs and Dinosaurs. The game is set 600 years in the future in the Xenozoic Age, when human life struggles to survive against dinosaurs who are enjoying a revival. You join Jack 'Cadillac' Tenrec and Hannah Dundee in their 1953 vintage car as they race through dense and deadly jungles. You get to battle against monster predators, mutant poachers and other unforgiving hazards as you cruise along trying to wipe out anything that is remotely prehistoric looking. Thanks to the programmers 'Game Science system' you get lots of hot action. Definitely not a dinosaur of a game!

TWO RASHERS, PLEASE!

Game Gear owners are one behind in the Road Rash series - but not for long. While everyone else is rashing to the power of three you'll soon be able to kick, punch, fight and scrap in the sequel Road Rash II. Expect a release in early February (or sooner, if you're lucky!) priced around £29.99.

Oooh! Take that blue bike.

FRENCH LESSONS

The grapevine has revealed that two gaellic guys are soon to hit the Mega Drive ... Asterix, the famous little warrior is apparently dusting off his tunic and cape for a sequel to the successful original. Furthermore, Herge's boy detective Tintin is rumoured to be recruiting his dog Snowy and chum Captain Haddock for some crime-busting action. Watch this space and remember where you heard it first!

SONIC & KNUCKLES SPECIAL Part 1

MUSHROOM HILL ZONE - 2 ACTS

Go from left-to-right and you'll be home and dry.

HAZARDS:

THE DRAGONFLY: Running into these pesky badniks will almost guarantee loss of rings.

Approach slowly, then jump into the head to eliminate them! The safest way is not to avoid contact with them, but just make sure you scrape by them.

MADMOLE: Watch out! This mole will appear without warning, hurling mushrooms which, if you're not careful, will stick to your body. Jump over the mushrooms and land on the mole's head to get rid of him.

STICKY VINES: An entanglement with these can result in losing a life by provoking attack from badniks in the area. Carefully jump into any baddies around you, then perform a spin-dash to break free.

CLUCKOID (ACT 2 ONLY): Approach these nasty Chickens cautiously as they create gusts of wind which blow you into danger. When the wind stops, jump on their heads to destroy.

HINTS:

LARGE ORANGE MUSHROOMS: These enable you to reach higher areas of the game. The trick is to stand on top of a mushroom and bounce. Provided you're left alone by badniks you'll continually go higher.

GIANT CORKSCREWS: In order to gain height, grab one of the two handles and press Down repeatedly.

BOSS - ACT ONE: When Robotnik's boss throws logs at you, avoid them by jumping in the air. When he is near the ground, jump on him and bounce several times on top of the ship. He'll be no more after a couple of hits.

BOSS - ACT TWO: Spin-dash the satellite dish, then chase Robotnik by running right. Jump over or through the spike balls, but be careful you don't jump up and hit Robotnik's ship while flames are pouring out. This boss will be destroyed after several hits.

FLYING BATTERY ZONE - 2 ACTS

A fairly straightforward level, although a few obstacles need to be overcome.

HAZARDS:

BLASTER: These tank-like badniks can be lethal if approached too cautiously. Perform a spin-dash to get rid of them quickly.

FIRE: Dotted throughout the level, fire should be avoided at all costs. Use the overhead climbing frames when available in order to get past.

PROPELLERS (ACT ONE): When swinging around the poles, get as close as possible to the Propeller. Now let go and proceed onto the next one. This should keep you fairly safe.

HINTS:

FIRE: Sometimes there will either be a spring or a door-opening button in the centre - the spring being especially useful if you are playing as Sonic.

OVERHEAD CLIMBING FRAMES:

Use them frequently in order to avoid danger.

BOSS - ACT ONE:

Stand on top of the boss on the yellow button. When one of his arms stops moving, jump left to ground level. He should now hit himself! Repeat this action several times to destroy him. S'easy when you know how!

BOSS - ACT TWO:

Stand still. As soon as the moving laser stops, get out of the way. Repeat this several times to complete the first part. Next is the hard bit! As the ground pushes up, quickly make your way to the top of the level (move too slow and you'll come to a nasty end). Once in the sky, Robotnik will re-appear. Stand either side of the screen and wait until Robotnik moves up. Jump into him, wait, then jump into him again. Jump to the opposite end of the screen and repeat the above actions to eventually win!

SANDOPOLIS ZONE - 2 ACTS

Although Act one was fairly simple, Act two is a different story as it's one of the most difficult zones in the game.

HAZARDS (ACT TWO):

WATER SLIDE: When travelling down a slide on the right, watch out for a moving platform. When you see it, jump across to the slide on the left as it will take you off the slides and you'll land back onto dry land.

KNUCKLES: A Moveable Black Switch that swiftly closes a door and can prevent you from moving along. Go right until you come to a dead end. Climb the wall to the top and glide left to press a yellow button. This enables sand to fill in below. Return to the Black Switch where you'll notice a piece of Moveable Concrete. Push this into the Black Switch in order to hold it, allowing you to proceed to the right.

HAZARDS:

SKORP: These are nasty so don't stand around too long or they'll hit you with their tail. When the tail is in the air, attack them by performing a spin-dash.

GHOSTS (ACT TWO): These become lethal when darkness falls. Find one of the many handles that hang overhead and pull it down.

LARGE OVERHEAD YELLOW BUTTONS: Touching one of these will fill the ground with sand, which can crush you if you don't know the escape route. Only use them if you're playing as Sonic as they enable him to go higher. Incidentally, because Knuckles has the ability to climb walls, he doesn't need to risk using the sand.

HINTS:

MOVEABLE CONCRETE: Push these slabs onto a conveyor belt and they'll help you avoid danger.

WATERFALLS: When standing under a waterfall, keep pressing jump to take you higher.

MOVEABLE BLACK SWITCHES (ACT TWO): These are dotted around the level. When moved, they are able to open a nearby door.

BOSS - ACT ONE:

Stand at the far right of the screen. When the stone man appears, jump up and hit him in the face! Keep repeating this and he'll eventually fall off the left-hand edge and into the waterfall.

BOSS - ACT TWO:

When you see Robotnik's machine, wait until the foot closest to the screen sticks out. Stand on this, then jump up to hit his head. Repeat these actions to win.

TOP TIPS

1. Timing is very important in order to get through a tight space. Get this right while using the spin-dash and you'll have no problems.
2. Playing as Knuckles, frequently use his wall-climbing, strength and gliding skills as they really do make life easier.
3. Bear in mind that there are two ways of completing most levels. Using Knuckles you can take short cuts because of his extra abilities, while Sonic must take another route as he can't climb walls etc.
4. SONIC 1 WORKS WITH SONIC & KNUCKLES!
Well, nearly. Although you can't strictly play using Sonic 1, you can gain access to an infinite number of bonus levels! Plug your Sonic 1 cart into the top of Sonic and Knuckles, and when the screen saying 'No Way!' comes up, press buttons A, B and C on the joypad simultaneously. You should hear a chime before you enter the secret bonus game.

Just Deserts

Dear Megadroid,

I'm bored seeing the same old Tomy Water Fun game as your give-away prize in Speedlines. Why can't you change it to a Sonic or Tails cuddly toy, a T-shirt, or even a pair of power sneakers?

Jamie Webster, Milton Keynes. MD owner.

Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

Well done on having your letter published, Jamie.

You'll have endless hours of pleasure with the Sonic Water Fun Game that's heading your way.

The Tartan Tyrant...
Stuart Hollingsworth, Haddington, E. Lothian. Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

Hume Error!

It was obviously all that mulled lemonade over Christmas that muddled the minds of the humes-who-think-they're-in-charge. Unfortunately, the letters printed in Speedlines issue 40 were repeated from issue 39. Those responsible have been severely reprimanded and have had to sing Auld Lang Syne backwards, whilst standing on one leg.

Prizes should be despatched within approximately 28 days of publication of your drawing or letter. If you haven't received your prize after that time, please contact the Tomy Care Line direct on the number listed below.

Price Of Fame

Dear Megadroid,

Does it occur to you that us Boomers might not be able to afford your comic anymore? Surely if the cost had stayed at the original price of 95p then more copies of STC would be sold.

Angry Jonathan Croot, W. Midlands. MD & MS owner. Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

These decisions are made, Angry, by the humes in charge of the humes-who-think-they're-in-charge.

Megadroid adopts a new image for the New Year?

Nikki Johnson, West Bolden, Tyne & Wear. MS owner. Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

Sweet Charity

Dear Megadroid,

My parents do not have much money because they have to pay for my brother and sister's college fees. This means they can't afford to buy me a Mega CD with the Sonic CD. Since you are one of the most popular comics around, will you send me one?
James Pickard, Hadlow, Kent. MD owner.

Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

The name's Megadroid James, not Mega-rich!
